President's Message

Happy Holidays! Wishing all of our CDA members and their loved ones a joyous holiday season.

I know this time of year is busy for all of us but do not forget that now is the time to get your ads, pictures, and listings of schooling shows to John for the 2010 Omnibus. Remember that your farm's schooling shows can become qualifiers for CDA year-end awards when listed in the Omnibus. We also love getting pictures of you and your horses for the omnibus. A personal ad is a great way to share your favorite picture and show your support. Early bird discount deadline is December 25th, so get those ads in and save some money.

We are very pleased to announce that once again CDA is going to donate $1,000 to Mitchell Farm Equine Retirement home. We feel their mission to provide a safe and comfortable retirement alternative for aged horses, and their active endeavor to educate the public on care and management of our older equines is a very worthwhile cause. Donations help pay for hay, feed, medical supplies, and other necessities. If you wish to learn more about Mitchell Farm you can go to their website, www.mitchellfarm.org.

Just a reminder that January 23rd, the date of our membership appreciation party, will be here before you know it. We are in the process of gathering items for our silent auction. All proceeds from our silent auction go to supporting educational programs, sponsoring teams such as our youth teams and Adult Amateur teams, and helping charitable organizations such as the High Hopes Therapeutic Riding Center and Mitchell Farm Equine Retirement. The more items we have the better. Any donation is always appreciated and much needed to run and support these valuable programs.

I would like to thank all of our members for getting your membership renewals in. We thank you for your continued support. The CDA is your organization and your way of fostering the growth of Dressage in our community and beyond. We urge you to get more involved in 2010. Why not come join our monthly board meetings that are open to all members, or volunteer at an event. If you have a little spare time it is a great way to meet new people in the dressage community and make new friends.

If you have not done so already, check out our new Facebook page! We keep an updated listing of dressage events throughout the area and post pictures from our past events and activities. If you wish to start a discussion or post clinics at your farm please feel free to do so. It is a great way to connect with lots of fellow dressage enthusiasts and stay in touch with old friends.

Have a lovely holiday....See you soon,
Chris

Chris Rogers Aquilio, President

PROPOSED SLATE OF DIRECTORS FOR CDA

(Nominations from the floor will be accepted as long as the person nominated agrees to the nomination)

M. Chris Rogers Aquilio

I was born and raised in Connecticut. My parents had a small farm and I grew up working in the gardens and caring for many animals including our Toggenburg dairy goats, cows, sheep, chickens, and assorted others. I have owned and ridden horses since I was eight, but did not take formal riding lessons until I was in my 20's. I trained hunter/jumper for several years, and at the same time took French Classical Dressage lessons. I bought my current horse Basil, a Lipizzaner, when I was in my early 30's. Basil was almost 4 and unbroken when I bought him. I have been blessed with lots of good help in training him; I really enjoy the journey in starting a horse and bringing him along in his physical and emotional development. I currently work with Bettina Drummond on a regular basis and we are successfully schooling second/third level. I hope to show him at second level next year and move on from there.

My love of art, music, and horses has drawn me to dressage. I spent countless hours drawing horses when I was younger and went to art school for a brief period of time. My pragmatism made me put thoughts of a career in art aside and I completed my college education at Fairfield University with a degree in Accounting. My busy working career in my early 20's made it difficult to find time to ride or draw. I worked in public accounting and auditing for several years, then attained my Securities License and worked on a convertible bond trading desk. When the firm moved to New York City I was able to choose not to go. I now have time to ride and again pursue my artistic endeavors. I have been actively involved in running dressage shows in our region and currently volunteer for various shows and clinics as much as I can. I have enjoyed being on the CDA board and being the President since 2007

My goal for the CDA is to make our organization the best it can be for our members, and bring them every opportunity to grow and prosper in the sport and their own personal riding. Through quality programs, I want the CDA to be an important part of helping our members achieve their riding goals no matter what they may be.

Erin O'Neil

Hi, my name is Erin O'Neil, I'm 15 years old and an active dressage rider and competitor. Currently, I am the Youth Representative to the CDA board. My responsibilities include communicating with CDA's youth members and helping plan the meetings in preparation for Lendon's Youth Dressage Festival. Working as a part of CDA and being to work with the other board members is something I really enjoy. I have learned a lot in the past two years that I have been on the board.

Marisa Evans

Marisa Evans: My involvement with CDA started out through volunteering. I learned to score, scribe, ring steward & I made some great friends. I was proud to win a Volunteer of the Year award, but have learned that it's a good "hook" to get someone on the Board! So, I have happily served on the CDA board since 2007. I have enjoyed being the show secretary for the schooling shows at Once Again Farm for the past two years and volunteered to be the Awards Coordinator for 2009. I love working with this energetic & fun group of people! On the personal side, I am "mom" to a nearly 3 year old son, Lucas, and a nearly 16 year old Thoroughbred gelding, Phoenix. Thank you!

John Gordon

I have served on the Board of CDA for the past 13 years. During that time I have been the editor of the Centerline. I have also put CDA on the web as its webmaster for the last 12 years and then became the editor for the Omnibus 8 years ago and am now working to bring you the 2010 CDA Omnibus. Wait a minute, how the heck did 13 years go by so quickly.

Sharon Knies

I loved horses since I was a child. I only began to ride when in my mid to late 20's. I was an active member of the CDA Board of Directors for 6 years in the early 90's successfully running all of the schooling shows and recognized shows during that time. I sold my horse 15 years ago because of a foot injury only returning to my childhood dream in 2007.

Currently I am the owner of Windhorse International, LLC a boarding/breeding facility in Bethlehem, CT. I own 7 P.R.E's (Andalusian) horses.

Donna Leonessa

I have been on the Board of CDA for a number of years. My initial quest was to help bring quality educational events to our members. I ran two riding clinics and two educational clinics each year for CDA members. In the last year I spearheaded the effort to run the USDF Instructor Workshops which include a series of educational topics: Riding, Teaching and Lunging. The Workshops are open to both professional instructors and individuals who are interested in advancing their own skills. Next year our goal is to run the Pre-Certification and Certification Testing for Candidates who are interested in continuing their education and getting their certification from USDF. The USDF Workshops and Certification Program will bring tremendous benefits to CDA members since it provides a uniform training program for each of us who acts as a trainer to our horses and those who teach other riders. I look forward to carrying this out for CDA members in 2010 as a representative of the Board.

Susan Guay

My name is Susan Guay, I have been a CDA member for years, and I enjoy working at horse shows and helping others. This year I was the volunteer coordinator for the instructor certification workshops that we held in 2009. Also, I volunteered at several dressage shows over the summer. I grew up riding and showing western pleasure and trail, competed in hunter-jumpers, and eventing before focusing on dressage. My horses are a 16 year old Hanoverian cross mare, a 17 year old Irish sport horse gelding and a 4 year old TB gelding. I have a Bachelor's in Equine Management and an Associate's in Accounting and have worked in the horse business all of my life, from grooming, managing, teaching, and hoof trimming.

Hi everyone,

I hope all of our youth riders are aware of the USEF Youth Clinics being held around the US. These are free for the selected riders. The USEF press release is below. Except for the clinic in Michigan, applications are still being taken. This is a fabulous opportunity for our youth.

As published by USEF: “The United States Equestrian Federation, Inc. (USEF) is pleased to announce the launch of the USEF Dressage Youth/Pony Pilot Program for Fall 2009. This program is designed to seek out, educate and assist the development of the young riders, and will be under the direction of Lendon Gray, appointed by the USEF Dressage High Performance Committee.

“I am thrilled that USEF is going to help to develop the best equitation and riding skills in our younger riders,” Gray said. “It is so much easier to develop correct riding from the early ages than to try to change bad habits later.”

The Pilot Program will consist of clinics held throughout the United States, which will be conducted by Gray, and high-performance athletes such as Michael Barisone, Pam Goodrich, Arlene “Tuny” Page and David Wightman. “The clinics will include emphasis on position and seat, technical skills, and riding and stable management theory,” continued Gray.

The clinics will be available to youth 20 years old and under with a special emphasis on riders ages 10 to 17. In order to meet the minimum requirements to participate, riders ages 10-15 on a horse or pony should have obtained a 62% or high from two different judges at First Level and above. Riders ages 16-17 should have obtained 62% or higher from two different judges at Third Level and above. If space permits, clinics will be open to riders 18-20 who have obtained 62% or higher from two different judges at Fourth Level and above. Youth riders who do not qualify, as well as instructors, are encouraged to audit these clinics (organizers may charge an auditing fee). There will be up to ten (10) riders at each clinic.

The following are clinic dates and locations for the USEF Youth/Pony Pilot Program:

Instructor	Location	Dates
Lendon Gray	Carson City, MI	November 14-15, 2009
Pamela Goodrich	Boscawen, NH	November 21-22, 2009
Lendon Gray	Newtown, PA	November 21-22, 2009
Arlene “Tuny” Page	Wellington, FL	November 21-22, 2009
Michael Barisone	Long Valley, NJ	December 5-6, 2009
Lendon Gray	Marion, TX	December 19-20, 2009
David Wightman	Murrieta, CA	December 19-20
Lendon Gray	Kansas City, MO	January 9-10, 2010

Any rider interested in the clinic must apply through the USEF Dressage Department. The application is available on the USEF website Dressage Page: www.usef.org/IFrames/breedsDisciplines/discipline/allDressage.aspx Applications for November clinics close October 28, 2009 and applications for December clinics close November 11, 2009.

For further information, please contact: Jenny Van Wieren, USEF Assistant Director of Dressage, at jvanwieren@usef.org or (859)225-6949.

Also I know of three nice ponies (one is 14.3+) for sale in Mt. Kisco, NY (near me). They are 5 - 7, nicely started up to third level. All will be very competitive mounts.

Charles “Chuck” Smith Named 2009 USDF Volunteer of the Year

Lexington, KY (November 25, 2009) - The United States Dressage Federation (USDF) is pleased to announce that Charles “Chuck” Smith has received the 2009 USDF Volunteer of the Year Award, presented by The Paddock Saddlery. This award recognizes a USDF member who, through consistent and cumulative volunteer activities, has demonstrated exceptional commitment towards carrying out USDF’s mission. As the winner, Chuck will be presented with a perpetual trophy, which is permanently on display in the Roemer Foundation/USDF Hall of Fame, will be featured in the yearbook issue of USDF Connection, and receive a “keeper” trophy and $500 gift certificate from The Paddock Saddlery.

Chuck, of Richwood, OH, played a leading role in one of the greatest accomplishments in USDF’s history, the very successful capital campaign for the USDF National Education Center. From 2004-2007, Chuck served as the national chairman of the capital campaign and with his down-to-earth leadership and inspiration, the campaign achieved its fundraising objective with more than 4.2 million dollars committed. Chuck also continues to work with staff on follow-through on pledges, in an effort to achieve the ultimate goal of debt-free home ownership and the establishment of a base of one million dollars for the National Education Endowment Fund. In addition to his work on the capital campaign, Chuck has also been a member of the USDF Audit Committee since its inception last year, and has served with distinction on the USDF Sport Horse Committee since 2004.

Apart from his outstanding volunteer work, Chuck and his wife Joann are also the proud owners of their very popular, crowd-pleasing, Westfalian mare, Rocher. She and her rider, USDF Vice President George Williams, had a fabulous competition career, including a fifth place finish in the 2003 FEI World Cup Freestyle Final in Goteborg, Sweden, being named 2003 USDF Grand Prix and Grand Prix Freestyle Horse of the Year, and being named The Chronicle of the Horse Horse of the Year in 2003. Together, they also won the Grand Prix and the Grand Prix Freestyle at the Dressage at Devon CDI an unprecedented three times with record scores, and took home the USEF Grand Prix Championship in 2005.

“Chuck’s leadership of and tireless devotion to the capital campaign helped in a major way to make the USDF National Education Center a reality. We are very pleased to honor him as the USDF Volunteer of the Year,” said USDF President Sam Barish.

For more information on the USDF Volunteer of the Year Award, presented by The Paddock Saddlery, visit the USDF Web site at www.usdf.org or contact the USDF

USDF Announces 2009 Youth Volunteer of the Year

Lexington, KY (November 20, 2009) - The United States Dressage Federation (USDF) is pleased to announce that Kariel Swanfeldt of Ayer, MA, has been selected as the recipient of the 2009 USDF Youth Volunteer of the Year Award, presented by The Paddock Saddlery and sponsored by the USDF Youth Executive Board. This prestigious award honors one outstanding youth volunteer who has contributed on a national and local basis to USDF and dressage.

As the recipient of this award, Kariel’s name will be engraved on a perpetual trophy, housed in the Roemer Foundation/USDF Hall of Fame, which was donated by the Akin family of Warwick, NY, in honor of Lendon Gray. Kariel will also receive a $500 scholarship provided from funds raised through the Youth Executive Board Silent Auction, held annually at the Adequan/USDF Annual Convention, and a $250 gift certificate donated by The Paddock Saddlery.

In 2008-2009, Kariel volunteered over 200 hours at numerous events, including the New England Dressage Association (NEDA) Fall Festival, the NEDA Year End Awards Committee, The Equine Affaire, the NEDA Spring Dressage Show and several NEDA symposiums. Sue McKeown, on behalf of the NEDA board, nominated Kariel for the Youth Volunteer of the Year Award, based on her phenomenal “work ethic and sense of duty.” Kariel has been a great asset to NEDA and a role model to her peers, and as Sue explains, “The type of work that she volunteers for is not necessarily the face in front of the crowd, or the job that will get her noticed by the clinician; however, it is critical work that needs to be done and Kariel performs it consistently with a pleasant personality and a willing heart to help.”

New Funding Opportunity From the Dressage Foundation

The Dressage Foundation announced today that a new fund has been established. The Trip Harting Fund has been created with donations to The Dressage Foundation from Trip's friends and supporters. This fund will provide grants up to $500 for a current or graduate rider with a Pony Club Rating of B or A to assist in attending the USDF "L" Education Program or USDF Instructor Certification Program.

"Trip and I evented together when we were pony clubbers and as adults, we both put our hearts and energy into providing educational programs for young riders. Every time I got together with Trip, he challenged me to find new ways to educate and give valuable learning opportunities to our youth. I am thrilled that I am part of making Trip's wishes come true," said Lendon Gray, President and Chief Executive Officer, The Dressage Foundation.

Raised in Potomac, Md., where his father founded the Potomac Horse Center, Trip Harting began riding when he was 6 years old. By the age of 15, he became the youngest member of the U.S. Pentathlon Team.

Harting received his U.S. Equestrian Federation judging license, receiving his S rating in 1985. Ever since then, he was a very popular S-rated judge. Up until his death, Harting taught 10 to 20 clinics and judged 25 to 30 shows per year throughout the United States and around the world.

Outside of competition, Harting was revered as a brilliant trainer and clinician. He taught hunt seat equitation, dressage and eventing for more than 30 years. Harting's real love, however, was working with juniors and young riders.

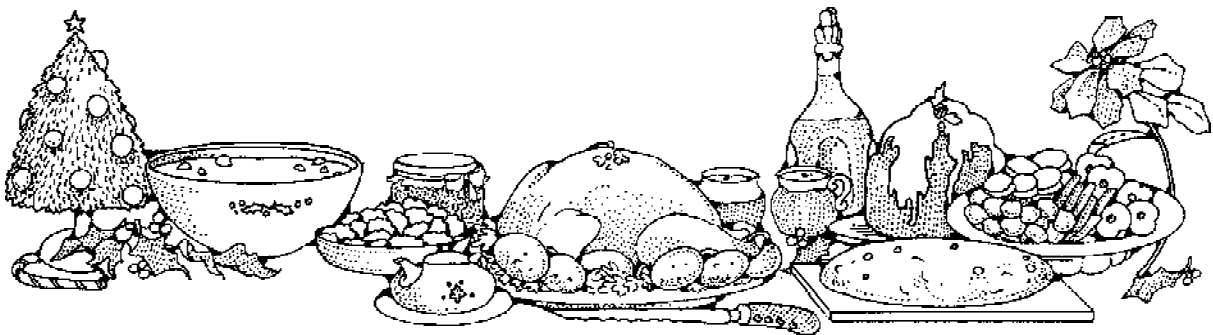

In 2001, Harting accepted the position of coach and chef d'equipe of the U.S. Pony Clubs team at the North American Junior Dressage Championship (Ohio). The USPC honored him as a living legend in 2004.

"Trip and I talked quite a bit about his dream to help Young Riders," said John Boomer, Past President and CEO. "Trip would usually end our visits with comments like, 'John, I really want to do something, but I don't have the money.' Now, thanks to The Dressage Foundation, Trip's dream will live on!"

For more information about the United States Pony Club, visit www.ponyclub.org. To apply for a grant or for more information about The Dressage Foundation, please visit The Dressage Foundation website at www.dressagefoundation.org, or call (402) 434-8585.

The Dressage Foundation

The Dressage Foundation is a 501(c)(3), non-profit, tax-exempt, donor-driven organization that is dedicated to supporting and advancing the sport of dressage. The organization solicits contributions, appropriately allocates the donations, and awards grants and scholarships to dressage riders of all ages and levels.
